Journal Owner

initial Versita

- a. to prepare, reproduce, manufacture, publish, distribute, exhibit, advertise, promote, license and sub-license electronic copies of the Journal in digital form, through the Internet and other means of data transmission now known or later to be developed; the foregoing will include abstracts, bibliographic information, illustrations, pictures, indexes and subject headings and other proprietary materials contained in the Journal,

 4. Versita shall be entitled to enforce in respect of third parties, to such extent as permitted by law, the rights licensed to it hereunder.
 5. The licence provided for in this Agreement entitles the Journal Owner to no royalties or other fees. The Journal Owner acknowledges that the Journal content as distributed according to 2.3. hereof will be publicly accessible and such access will be free of charge for the readers.

§ 5. TERM

1. This Agreement shall be for a period ending on December 31, 2013. Complete annual volumes 2011–2013 of the Journal will be electronically published under this Agreement.
2. Extension of the term of this Agreement – for periods of two years each – shall be automatic unless either party receives written notice of objection from the other party not less than 6 months prior to the term expiration. For the extension to become effective, both parties need to agree the charges as provided by Schedule 2, if Versita has notified the Journal Owner of its intention to increase any of them at least 6 months prior to the term expiration.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of 5.2. hereof, either party shall have the right at any time by giving seven days' (in the cases referred to in points a and b below) or six months' (in the case referred to in point c below) notice in writing to the other party to terminate this Agreement in any of the following events:

4. In case this Agreement has been terminated by Versita according to the provisions of 5.3. hereof, the obligation of Versita set out in 2.1.d. terminates when this Agreement terminates.

5. In case this Agreement has been terminated according to the provisions of 5.3. hereof, the provisions of 2.3. hereof and Clause 4 shall remain in force until the end of the calendar year in which the relevant notice period has elapsed.
6. If the Journal Owner has delayed its payments to Versita due under this Agreement for more than 60 days, Versita has the right to withhold providing the Services, which may include in particular closing access to the content of the Journal or removing its content from the environment described in Clause 2.1.

§ 6. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

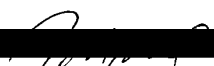

1. The Journal Owner represents and warrants that:
 - a. it exclusively owns the Journal,
 - b. it owns or it has acquired copyright and other intellectual property rights to the contents of the Journal, published or distributed under this Agreement,

 - d. it will reimburse Versita in respect of all costs and will compensate all damages that may result from claims of third parties, if either of the warranties given in points a, b and c above is not or will not be true within the duration of this Agreement,
 - e. it acknowledges that Versita is unable to exercise control either over the availability of the Internet or any other data network, and that Versita can give no warranty that the content will be available for access by customers at all times on the Internet or on any other data network; accordingly Versita shall not be liable, subject to mandatory law, for such unavailability or lack of access.
2. Versita represents and warrants that:
 - a. its personnel possesses and will possess the proper skill, training, experience and background to perform the services under this Agreement,
 - b. it has entered or will enter into agreements with the providers of the solutions necessary to perform all the Services and to meet all obligations undertaken by Versita by this Agreement.

§ 7. CONFIDENTIALITY

Each party hereto shall, except as required by law or to perform this Agreement, keep strictly confidential all information contained in this Agreement and all information resulting from the implementation of this Agreement, and not use this confidential information in any way other than for the performance of its obligations hereunder. This shall not apply to such information as is publicly available when received by such party or then becomes publicly available otherwise than as a result of such party's breach of this Agreement, or to any disclosure or use as authorized by the other party in writing. This Clause 7 shall survive termination or expiry of this Agreement for 3 years.

§ 8. MISCELLANEOUS

1. Neither party may assign any of its rights or delegate any of its duties or obligations under this Agreement without the other party's written consent. Versita may, however, assign all of its rights and obligations hereunder to a company or partnership that is dependent on Versita or Mr Jacek Ciesielski, that controls Versita or that is controlled by a company or partnership that controls Versita (the relation of dependence or control to be assessed according to the Polish Commercial Companies Code), unless such assignee is insolvent at the time of such assignment.

4. Unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise, Versita's liability for its failure to provide the Services in accordance with this Agreement shall only arise where such failure is due to Versita's intentional fault or gross negligence or that of a person for whom Versita is liable.
5. If any provision in this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, that provision shall be, inasmuch as possible, construed, limited, modified or, if necessary, severed, to the extent necessary to eliminate its invalidity or unenforceability.
